Welcome from the Department Head of Nursing and Allied Health

Welcome to Redlands Community College Nursing Program!

We are committed to providing the highest quality and affordable nursing education to a diverse undergraduate student population. The associate degree program focuses on quality improvement and multidisciplinary collaboration based on current evidence to practice safe patient-centered care. The recently revised nursing program offers an innovative program reflective of the current needs and trends within the healthcare community.

We are a community-orientated program with a low faculty-to-student ratio that gives us the ability to help meet students' needs more efficiently. In addition to a low faculty-to-student ratio, the nursing program continues to collaborate with our academic partners to expand student resources and support for student retention. The nursing program's clinical partnerships include a combination of rural and urban sites within the Oklahoma City area that enhances the student's ability to secure employment prior to program completion.

This handbook is an important document for all students to read and keep as a reference during their academic years. It describes the current policies and procedures of Redlands Community College Associate Degree Nursing Program. If a policy must change during the academic year, students will be notified electronically and updated annually to reflect the most current policies and procedures.

If you have questions or concerns about these policies and procedures, please feel free to contact the nursing program at 405.422.6224.

Thank you for your interest in Redlands Community College Nursing Program!

Jalelah Abdul-Raheem, PhD, RN, CNE, BCCS, CHSE

Professor of Nursing/Department Head of Nursing and Allied Health

Accreditation and Approval

The Redlands Community College nursing program is approved by the Oklahoma Board of Nursing. Graduates of this state-approved program are eligible to apply to write the National Council Licensure Examination (NCLEX) for registered nurses. Applicants for Oklahoma licensure must meet all state and federal requirements to hold an Oklahoma license to practice nursing. In addition to completing a state-approved nursing education program that meets educational requirements and successfully passing the licensure examination, requirements include submission of an application for licensure, a criminal history records search, and evidence of citizenship or qualified alien status [59 O.S. §§567.5 & 567.6]. To be granted a license, an applicant must have the legal right to be in the United States (United States Code Chapter 8, Section 1621). In addition, Oklahoma law only allows a license to be issued to U.S. citizens, U.S. nationals, and legal permanent resident aliens. Other qualified aliens may be issued a temporary license that is valid until the expiration of their visa status, or if there is no expiration date, for one year. Applicants who are qualified aliens must present to the Board office, in person, valid documentary evidence of:

1. A valid, unexpired immigrant or nonimmigrant visa status for admission into the United States;
2. A pending or approved application for asylum in the United States;
3. Admission into the United States in refugee status;
4. A pending or approved application for temporary protected status in the United States;
5. Approved deferred action status; or
6. A pending application for adjustment of status to legal permanent resident status or conditional resident status.

The Board has the authority to deny a license, recognition or certificate; issue a license, recognition or certificate with conditions and/or an administrative penalty; or to issue and otherwise discipline a license, recognition or certificate to an individual with a history of criminal background, disciplinary action on any professional or occupational license or certification, or judicial declaration of mental incompetence [59 O.S. §567.8]. These cases are considered on an individual basis at the time application for licensure is made. Potential applicants to state-approved education programs, with a criminal history, may obtain a determination of eligibility for licensure or certification from the Oklahoma Board of Nursing for a fee. The determination of eligibility for licensure petition can be accessed at <http://nursing.ok.gov/initialdeterm.pdf>.

Treatment of Violations of the Student Conduct Code

Violations of the Student Conduct Code by any Active Student will result in disciplinary actions in accordance with this policy.

Violations of the Student Conduct Code by any Inactive Student may result in penalties including but not limited to a 6-month “Notice to Leave” from the Redlands campus and the placement of a disciplinary hold on the student account preventing enrollment in any credit or non-credit courses for the duration of the Notice to Leave. For the hold to be removed from the student’s account, a meeting must occur between the Inactive Student and the Student Conduct Council. Based upon an individualized assessment of the circumstances, additional conditions on enrollment may be imposed.

In cases of repeated violations of the Student Conduct Code, the Investigating Officer may consider the student’s disciplinary history and impose increasing punitive disciplinary sanctions; provided, no prior disciplinary history is required to impose sanctions appropriate to the severity of the violations(s).

Professional Behavior

- A. Professional behavior, which is a key factor in maintaining academic good standing, refers not only to conduct in the classroom but also in the clinical setting and at all other events where the student is representing the Redlands Community College Nursing Program.
- B. The American Nurses Association (ANA) identifies Standards of Professional Performance in the Standards of Clinical Nursing Practice; these reflect the priorities and values of the nursing profession. In the ANA Code of Ethics, the following statements can be found, “The nurse, in all professional relationships, practices with compassion and respect for the inherent dignity, worth, and uniqueness of every individual...” and “This standard of conduct precludes any and all prejudicial actions, any form of harassment or threatening behavior, or disregard for the effect of one’s actions on others” (pp.4 & 9). In observance of these standards the Division of Nursing has added the following guidelines:

Redlands Community College Nursing Program
2024-2025

1. Students must comply with the dress code identified in the student handbook at all times.
2. Students must adhere to assigned starting and dismissal times for class and clinical rotations, unless prior arrangements have been made or an emergency situation arises.
3. Students must demonstrate safe practice behaviors while caring for clients in the clinical setting.
4. Students must demonstrate respect/compassion for faculty, clients, families, other health care providers and their fellow students. The student is expected to contribute to solutions and create a positive climate in the classroom and clinical setting.
5. Students must demonstrate honesty in the classroom and clinical area. Honesty in the classroom is discussed under Academic Integrity.
6. Students must demonstrate appropriate conduct in all classroom and clinical situations.
7. Students must comply with and maintain HIPPA standards of confidentiality with regard to clients, families, institutions, faculty, and fellow students.
8. Electronic devices must be converted to a soundless mode during any Redlands Community College classroom educational experience.
9. During every testing time, students should leave everything in vehicle except the vehicle key and a pencil.
10. Communication is vital in terms of students in all matters related to their attendance and performance in class. Students must assume responsibility for this communication.
11. Electronic devices are allowed in class for the purpose of taking notes, reading on line text books or other faculty directed class activities only.
12. Students must comply with and maintain HIPPA standards of confidentiality with regard to all health records (clinical facility, patient, and Redlands Community College Program).

Electronic Communication

The Internet offers many opportunities for communication between students and faculty. The following tips will help you communicate effectively in Canvas and Outlook Email.

Canvas

- A. All nursing program courses are web-enhanced.
- B. A Canvas tutorial is also available on <https://community.canvaslms.com/t5/Video-Guide/Canvas-Overview-Students/ta-p/383771>.
- C. Computers are available to students in the nursing computer lab and other computer labs on campus.
- D. If a student is having technical problems with Canvas, do not call the instructor. Contact Redlands IT Department at technology.supportservices@redlandsc.edu or (405) 422-1288.
- E. Check Canvas several times daily and prior to class. Instructors use Canvas to post announcements, updates and information pertinent to theory and/or clinical.
- F. Information or questions intended for clinical instructors should be sent via Canvas course email unless otherwise specified. Instructors will respond to email Monday through Friday during business hours.
- G. “Discussions” on Canvas are public to the entire class and all instructors. “Mail” is sent to individuals.
- H. To submit an assignment via Canvas:
 1. View the link below:
 - a. How Do I Submit an Online Assignment?
(<https://community.canvaslms.com/t5/Student-Guide/How-do-I-submit-an-online-assignment/ta-p/503>)
 2. For each submission, title the email with a brief description and your name (e.g. Drug Card Suzy Student).
 3. Retain all digital copies of files sent. Sometimes resubmission may be required.
 4. Do not include other business in emails with your assignments.

Email

- Include a descriptive subject in the subject line of original and return messages.
- Sign your name to your email message - we may not recognize your email address - the more clever or cryptic it is - the less likely we will know who you are!
- Check for email messages several times weekly. Full-time faculty members attempt to reply to email messages on their office days. You can expect to hear back from us by our next office day.
- Use student email addresses and instructor email addresses for course business only! Do not send virus warnings, jokes, anecdotes, solicitations or other personal business unless given explicit permission to do so.

- Please do not include instructors or other students in your email contact groups. We would like to avoid receiving email from everyone else in your groups or email not related to the course.
- We assume that the email address supplied to you by Redlands Community College is private and may send information regarding your course performance to this address. Please keep this in mind if you choose to forward your mail to an address to which another individual has access.
- Faculty will utilize the email address listed for you in the Canvas class list. Please keep in mind that if you have forwarded your Outlook email address to another email address and reply from that address, your message may be detected as spam. Faculty will only respond to messages from your Redlands outlook email or email via Canvas.

Phone

- A contact number for your clinical instructor will be offered to you prior to the first day of clinical. The instructor will indicate preference for phone call or text message and provide guidelines for use. It is your responsibility to record that number so that you may contact your clinical instructor regarding clinical obligations. Do not share this number with other students.
- Text messages are best used for immediate communication. If your communication need is not immediate, send an email message instead. Then you'll have documentation that a message was left.
- During the semester, instructors are not responsible for working on campus evenings or weekends, except in unusual circumstances. Therefore, we may not check email or voicemail messages until the next office day.
- Instructors are not available during college holidays, spring and fall breaks, summer, and between the spring and fall semesters and may not respond to telephone or email messages during those times.

Communication (See also Policy 4.0 Technology, Electronic Device Use and Social Networking)

- Personal phone messages will NOT be received through the nursing office. The only exception is a true emergency which occurs while a student is in an on-campus nursing class. Redlands Community College phone is 405.262.2552. For emergencies during clinical, the student's designated contact person should be kept informed of the clinical instructor's phone numbers.
- Students should communicate directly with instructors regarding personal issues that may affect attendance and/or performance.
- Students may contact instructors by office phone or school email. Students may contact instructors by phone number indicated by individual instructor.
- Office hours for nursing faculty will be communicated to students on a semester-by-semester basis. Students are encouraged to make appointments to discuss specific issues.
- All nursing professors including the Department Head are available to meet with students by appointment.

Computer Lab Guidelines

- The Nursing Computer Laboratory is located in the OE building. The computer lab is used for testing or class experiences for all Allied Health programs.
- No food or drink is allowed in the computer lab. (Headphones must be used with instructor permission if program has audio.) Students may not add programs to the hard drive, bring games to play or alter/copy existing programs.
- Any computer lab problems should be reported to the Redlands Technology Support, on-campus extension 1288, if off-campus or by cell phone, 405.422.1288.

Learning Resource Center (LRC)

The Learning Resources Center is available to students for many activities including:

- Access to articles listed as suggested resources for further information on specified subjects
- Online access to nursing journal database for evidence-based practice summaries
- Assistance with textbooks and online professional healthcare sites
- Academic Center for Enhancement (ACE) located on the 2nd floor of the LRC with additional learning aids, tutoring and testing site
- Open access computers during LRC open hours and Information Common Computer assistance.

Criminal History Background Checks

BACKGROUND CHECKS FOR CLINICAL SITES

Background checks on each student are required by clinical sites to protect patients and the general public. Contracts with all clinical sites require you to have background checks performed. Redlands Community College Division of Nursing reserves the right to require repeat background checks if needed. Per clinical contracts, Redlands Community College will allow dissemination of self-disclosure information, background check results, and conviction records to clinical training sites, whether in or outside the state of Oklahoma as deemed necessary by the school. An OSBI and federal background check must be completed before beginning clinical.

Conviction/criminal history records are reviewed as they relate to the content and nature of the curriculum and the safety and security of patients and the public.

In addition, please be aware that the clinical sites reserve the right to refuse placement of any student. If the student is unable to meet the clinical requirements, it will result in the student not being allowed to progress in the program.

Clinical Guidelines

- Preplanning will be required, as an assignment, and each student is expected to attend report, listen attentively and begin to establish professional rapport with healthcare personnel in attendance.
- No use of tobacco products, e-cigarettes or vapor products is allowed during clinical, lab or simulation experiences.
- No student is authorized to leave the facility without obtaining permission from the assigned faculty and/or preceptor.
- Students are allowed a total of one hour for break during a nine (9) hour clinical. However, patient care responsibilities must always be considered first.

- The student is responsible for ensuring skills demonstrated in lab are signed by the instructor.
- Skills may not be performed in the clinical setting if the skill has not been documented as checked off by faculty. Skills marked with an asterisk (*) must also be checked off by an instructor in the clinical setting before performing the skills independently.

Community Clinical

5. Any student who has been absent due to illness, surgery, pregnancy or delivery, or injury must present, upon return, a FORM: Release to Return to Clinical Activity. The instructor reserves the right to make the final decision of allowing the student to class, clinical or laboratory utilizing the criteria of patient safety.
6. All students must be enrolled and maintain enrollment in the clinical management website designated by the Nursing Program. Failure to enroll will lead to inability to be present at clinical which will result in clinical failure.
7. Failure to complete required clinical hours will result in failure of the course.

Policy 3.01: Tardy to Clinical

Students who arrive at clinical after the scheduled time, without the clinical instructor's permission, may be subject to dismissal from the clinical site and will be required to make up the clinical.

Students are responsible for reliable transportation needed to get to clinical in a timely manner and are advised to leave in an adequate amount of time to get to clinical on time despite unexpected transportation issues.

Failure to attend clinical due to transportation issues may result in not being allowed to make up the clinical day.

Policy 3.02: Make Up Clinical

Students who need to make up a clinical should schedule the makeup with a full-time nursing faculty teaching the course.

Students are allowed a maximum of one make up clinical per course. Students must provide documentation of an illness (self or child), family death, or any other extenuating circumstance approved by faculty in order to schedule a clinical make up.

Policy 3.04: Learning Activities

1. Students are expected to attend all learning activities.
2. Absence from class does not relieve the student of the responsibility for work required in the course during the absence.

Technology, Electronic Device Use and Social Networking

Policy 4.0

With the advent of electronic devices, a large amount of nursing, healthcare and productivity software has been developed. Studies have shown that students who use electronic devices in the clinical setting are more successful and are not as anxious about the experiences. The use of electronic devices in the clinical setting provides the student with up-to-date information, which is readily available. Therefore, the student may use an electronic device as a resource during clinical experiences as per facility policy. Compliance must be ensured with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability act (HIPPA). Students using electronic devices and/or audio devices in the classroom are required to abide by the same guidelines. Students must request permission and receive approval from faculty to record lectures using an electronic and/or audio device.

Social networking has allowed people across the world to have unprecedented access to immediate updates on another person's location, situation and commentary. However, this open access can also put the individual at a personal risk. People can be stalked; employers can search potential candidates, and people may unintentionally violate privacy rules.

1. Clinical information received via technology should be de-identified client information prior to submitting any clinical paperwork.
2. Refrain from posting any commentary about clinical situations, clients/patients, or any information listed above in any social networking venue, regardless of privacy settings.

Policy 9.0

Grievances/Complaints - Statement of Policy

A student of Redlands Community College who feels that he or she has been treated unfairly by an administrator, faculty member, instructor or other staff member may raise the issue through a grievance, provided there is no other College procedure which is available to address the issue. Issues addressed in other procedures, such as grade appeals, appeals of disciplinary action, complaints of discrimination and complaints of sexual harassment must be pursued in accordance with those procedures.

1. Informal Resolution

The student must seek informal resolution of the matter before filing a formal grievance. The student shall first raise the issue with the individual whose action is grieved. If the grievance is not resolved, the student shall raise the issue with that individual's immediate supervisor. The individual whose action is grieved shall be given the opportunity to respond to and participate in the informal resolution process. Absent resolution at this level, the student may then seek formal resolution of the grievance.

2. Formal Resolution

Before filing a formal grievance, a student must first seek informal resolution of the grievance. If an informal solution is not reached, a student may file a formal grievance by following the procedures published in the Procedures section of the Policies and Procedures Manual, as outlined in the Statement of Procedure in the Redlands Community College Catalog
